Home is Franklin Allen, formerly secretary to Mayor Seth Low. Mr. Allen was only witness before the Committee

He testified that, so far as he had gone over the accounts of Supt. Patrick Corrigan, he had found a big discrepancy in the price of supplies furnished the home. In 1890, Mr. Allen stated, bats had been supplied for 50 cents a bushel, ard in 1893 cats had cost 32.50 cents a bundle, and in 1894 $1.10. Feed in 1893 cost 13 a bushel, in 1891 50 cents, in 1890 cost on cent a pound one year, and the following year 14 cents a pound. Btraw supplied in 1893 cost 50 cents a bundle, and in 1894 $1.10. Feed in 1893 cost 13 a bushel, in 1893 $1.20. Smoked in 1890 cost one cent a pound in 1893.

Bait cod in 1893 was purchased for eight cents a pound, while in 1893 it had conty cost one cent a pound.

Canned peaches in 1899 had cost $3.50 per dozen cans, but in 1893 ty were supplied for $1. Yellow meal, in 1890, cost $1 a sack; in 1891, 65 cents; in 1892.

Mr. Allen stated that it cost 80 cents a day for each boy at the Home, while at the jail 28 cents a day for each prisoner.

This difference, Mr. Allen said, might be accounted for by the committee regarding the difference in the prices of supplies, Mr. Allen said it might be due to the system of granting contracts to the lowest bidder. The receipts made out by the Superintendent, he said, were fregular and could easily be changed by any dishonest contractor. He recommended a new system of receipts.

The investigation will be continued Thursday morning.

bursement of $6,500,000 to the Cherokee Indians began here yesterday. There is $1,600,000 in the Treasurer's office in the Cherokee State House here, and 100 of Cherokee State House here, and 100 of the Cherokee Light Guards, the surest shots in the service, patrol the premises and the principal streets. Should the Dalton or any other gang attempt to carry away the treasure, as has been rumored, they would be riddled with bullets before they could cross the street. As even bables are entitled to their prograta share, and no less than 700 of these have been born within the last year, the disbursement is proceeding somewhat allowith could be a sure of the coul owing to the large number families.

A feature of the proceedings is the presence of a large number of collectors, who are taking from the Cherokees whenever they can do so back debts, in some instances robbing the Indians of every cent they get from the Government.

His Majesty asked him whether French exports had diminished since the protectionist tariff had been adopted.

"Increased," M. Rolland replied, "by several millions, sire."

"Then the free-traders are in the right," exclaimed the King.

This declaration is expected to have an important influence upon the proposed increase of the Belgian tariff duties.

He says they did not become injected with "hideous ulcerations," as stated in a morning newspaper.

The Southery was floated on May 8, left the reef on May 15, and anchored in Gowanus Bay yesterday.
